

ULSTER GLIDING CLUB – FEES – Effective from 22 November 2021

In order to receive flying training at Ulster Gliding Club you must take out either Trial or Full membership. Trial membership is offered for a three-month period and is available on a 'once off' basis only. Full membership attracts discounts for different categories of member and may be paid in a lump sum or by monthly instalments through your bank. You can also avail of an 'Introductory Flight' which includes a special 'day membership' as standard.

Associate Membership allows member to take up to five glider flights per year (not training) and the use of club facilities.
